

Unction of Christ

I love how you tell the story of this event. You know, the visual reality of that moment was probably very messy. The spiritual reality of that moment was an explosion caused by the collision of great regret with great love and mercy. But you captured the soul of that moment showing the peace of both the woman and Jesus which is an intensely personal and touching moment for them. There's so much going on there and you told neither too much nor too little.
